BRIGHTER GERMAN OUTLOOK.

LOWER TAXES AND BETTER TRADE.

Berlin, November 9.

The Government has decided to reduce the income tax between 15 and 25 per cent. on incomes under eight thousand marks annually, with further allowances for children. The business turnover tax and luxury tax will also be substantially reduced. These reliefs are possible in consequence of the improved financial situation due to obtaining loans under the Dawes scheme, and the large excess of revenue over expenditure in the National Budget.

It is expected that the reductions mentioned, besides decreasing the cost of living, will increase the Germans' export capacity, as it will be unnecessary to raise the workers' wages, and export prices consequently can be kept at a level which will enable exporters to compete successfully in the world's markets.—Reuter.

PLOT AGAINST SPANISH DIRECTORY.

ARMED ANARCHISTS UNDER ARREST.

Paris, November 9.

Le Journal has a message from Perpignan stating that sixteen Spaniards who were arrested yesterday have been released, no offence being proved against them. Six others are detained for unlawfully carrying arms. Two are stated to have intended to participate in a conspiracy against Gen. De Rivera but did not belong to any organisation.

Several suspected persons tried to cross the frontier yesterday. Two were arrested at Banyuls carrying revolvers and anarchist documents. The Spanish Directory has decided to reinforce the frontier guard.—Reuter.

SATURDAY'S CRICKET. SIR ROBERT RETURNS.

INTERPORT ELEVEN SELECTED.

The principal cricket match on Saturday was the final Interport trial, and though the exhibition was somewhat patchy there was some bright play. At the conclusion, the selection committee chose the Hongkong eleven for the match against Shanghai, as follows:

H. B. Hancock, T. E. Pearce, A. C. L. Bowker, Rev. E. K. Quick, C. Q. M. S. A. Stripp, Pay-L. Comdr. Hargreaves, R. N. E. A. Webster, Rev. T. B. Powell, H. Owen Hughes, E. B. Reed, and W. A. Ramsay.

Hancock's side on Saturday compiled 167 for 8, Pearce contributing 50 before he retired. Bowker took 2 for 62, Reed 2 for 28, and Powell 2 for 34. Wood's side scored 118 for 7, Balchatch contributing 47. Quick took 4 for 32 and Webster 2 for 18.

LEAGUE MATCH.

The Civil Service Club, which probably has the strongest teams in the Colony, won an easy victory in a second division League match against the University. The Civil Service seconds compiled 167 for 2, and declared 100 not out. The Varsity team replied with 83, W. H. Edmonds taking 5 for 25 and C. Sara 3 for 32.

FRIENDLY GAMES.

The Indian Recreation Club beat the Royal Engineers after a very interesting friendly match. The R.E.s compiled 141 (Sergt. Cockell 60), H. D. Rumjahn taking 5 wickets for 43. The I.R.C. replied with 144 for 9. Sergt. Cockell took 5 for 75.

The H.K.C.C. visited Kowloon and easily defeated the K.C.C. The Peninsula eleven scored 90, F. Goodwin being top scorer with 21. H. Griffen took 5 for 35 and W. W. Mackenzie 3 for 16. The visitors knocked up a fairly big score, and with no fewer than 43 "extras", totalled 159 for 9. E. D. Matthews contributed 25 and Mackenzie 33 not out. Goodwin took 4 for 39.

Craigengower went down badly to the Navy, scoring 57 (S. Abbas retired hurt, 25) to the latter's 124 for 9. For the Navy, Surg. Lt. Pomfret took 5 for 15 and Mid Evans 3 for 19. For Craigengower, C. Fritz took 6 for 45.

The Civil Service had another big victory in a friendly with the Chinese Recreation Club, declaring at 208 for 2 (F. E. Lawrence 94, and E. C. Fincher 67 not out), whilst the C.R.C. only scored 45. Baker taking

AFTER A STRENUOUS TOUR

Sir Robert Ho Tung, the Assistant Commissioner for Hongkong at the Wembley Empire Exhibition, accompanied by Lady Ho Tung and the Misses Mary and Jean Ho Tung, returned to the Colony yesterday morning by the s.s. Coblenz.

The vessel was due at 7.30 a.m. and about exactly at that minute she was sighted coming up harbour from the eastward, by the large number of personal friends and prominent members of the Chinese community who had gathered at Blake Pier to welcome him. Sir Robert, who looks well and active after his strenuous months of absence in England and the Continent of Europe, had a very hearty reception upon landing at Blake Pier. On board the steamer, when she berthed at the Kowloon Wharf, Sir Robert was received by the members of his family, and crossed over on board a steam-launch from Messrs. Jardine, Matheson & Co. to Hongkong, where he landed at Blake Pier. At the landing stage there was a large and thoroughly representative gathering of the leading Chinese in Hongkong to extend a warm welcome to Sir Robert upon his return, and upon the signal success of his mission, which could not but have left the best of impressions concerning not only the distinguished visitor himself, but on the Chinese of this Colony whom Sir Robert represented with his colleague, the Hon. Mr. Chow Shou-sun, at the Empire Exhibition. Among the gathering were the Hon. Mr. R. H. Kotewall, Mr. Li Pok-kwai, Chairman of the Chinese General Chamber of Commerce, who was attended by the Secretary of the Chamber, the Chairman of the Tung Wah Hospital Committee, Mr. Chau Siu-ki, members of the Twenty-four Merchants' Guild of Hongkong, Mr. Ho Fook, Mr. Ho Kung-tong, Mr. Ho Kwong, and many others.

Later in the afternoon a private reception was held at "Idylwild" and was very largely attended by personal friends of Sir Robert and Lady Ho Tung.

Entertained at Singapore.

At Singapore, Sir Robert and his family enjoyed the distinction of being the guests of the Governor at Government House during their one day's stay in the sister Colony. Sir Robert speaks in grateful terms of the hospitality enjoyed at the hands of Sir Lawrence and Lady Guillemard.

CHANG EXPECTED AT TIENTSIN.

MUTINOUS CHEKIANG SOLDIERS.

Shanghai, Nov. 10.

A message from Tientsin says that Chang Tso-lin was expected there early this morning. Large Fongtien troop movements through Tientsin continued during the week-end.—Reuter.

Shanghai, Nov. 2.

Five thousand mutinous Chekiang soldiers have again cut the Woosung Railway on the outskirts of Shanghai, alleging that they are being unfairly treated by the Kiangsu authorities.

It is reported that there is a possibility of a clash with the Kiangsu forces stationed nearby.—Daily Bulletin.

PENG TO MEET CHANG.

Peking, Nov. 9.—Peng Yuchang left for Tientsin to-day where he will meet Chang Tso-lin and Tuan Chi-jui. It is expected that a subsequent conference will result in a temporary government programme largely at Chang's dictation and will map out the principles for a national conference later.—Reuter.

RUSSIA AND POLAND

AN UNPOPULAR APPOINTMENT.

Warsaw, Nov. 9.

M. Woikoff, the new Soviet Minister to Poland, has handed his credentials to President Wojciechowski. He made a speech assuring the Polish Government of the Soviet's friendly intentions and desire for co-operation. The President, replying, said he hoped the fulfilment of obligations by both countries would be the foundation of a resumption of normal relations.

The Press is hostile to Woikoff, alleging that during the two years he has been chief Soviet representative on the commission for execution of clauses of the Riga treaty, he has placed many obstacles in the way of the Polish representatives. They also point out that the attacks by bandits from across the eastern border are a daily occurrence.—Reuter.

A SWORD STICK.

CHINESE STUDENT FINED.

Mak Hung-chang, a Chinese student, who recently graduated from a French University with a B. A. degree, appeared before Mr. N. L. Smith at the Central Magistracy to-day on a charge of the possession of a sword-stick without a permit from the Captain Superintendent of Police.

Mr. Leach, appearing for the defendant, said that the man had been educated in France where it was quite a common thing to carry swordsticks. That being the case, he would plead guilty to a technical offence. The man had been away from China for ten years, and was on his way to Peking to fill a Government appointment. He broke his journey here for a few days, to visit friends in Macao, and was arrested at the wharf whilst going on board the Sui An yesterday morning.

His Worship accepted the statement and inflicted a fine of $25.

POPPY SUPPRESSION.

Peking, Nov. 9.

GANG CAUGHT.

SUSPECTED BAG SNATCHERS.

Smart Work By Police.

Some smart work by the Hongkong Police Force has resulted in the arrest of the gang said to be responsible for a number of highway robberies, committed for the most part on European ladies.

The investigation first commenced with the arrest, on Friday night, of a man alleged to have been concerned in an attack on a Chinese school teacher and an amah in Park Road. A confession from this man led to a visit by officers to a house in course of construction at Babington Path where daggers and coils of wire were found. Four men were arrested there, it being suspected that they were implicated in other armed robberies, notably the one on Mrs. Harris Walker and Miss Collinson. It will be recalled that Mrs. Walker was last week, attacked while going up a pathway leading from Lyttleton Road to her home in Babington Path.

Only one of the four men arrested, however, could be definitely identified later, and this man appeared before the Magistrate this morning, together with the prisoner arrested in the first instance, in connection with the attack on the Chinese teacher. Both were formally remanded.

A certain quantity of the stolen jewellery has been recovered.

Charges of armed robbery and assault on Mrs. Harris Walker; of armed robbery on two Chinese ladies and an amah at Kennedy Town; and of the attempted armed robbery and attack on the Chinese teacher were the charges recited in the Court this morning. The fact that some jewellery was recovered from the gang which has not yet been identified has led the Police to believe that the men were concerned in other robberies. The activities of these men appear to have been confined to the Western mid levels, and in this connection, it is requested that ladies who have at any time been robbed in Lyttleton, Babington and Park Roads within the last two months and who have not reported the fact to the Police, should now do so, in order to assist the Police in their investigations.

The three men arrested in connection with the highway robbery on Bowen Road, in which three Chinese ladies were dispossessed of their jewellery, are said to be coolies employed at the Military Hospital. The men were formally remanded by Mr. N. L. Smith at the Central Magistracy this morning.

GRAND OPERA.

ITALIAN COMPANY'S FURTHER SUCCESS.

The Italian Grand Opera Company scored yet another success at the Theatre Royal on Saturday night, when it presented Ambroise Thomas' famous "Mignon". The story is almost unique in operatic drama, for it is a tale of happiness won after great trial. There is no tragic climax, but a happy ending, and the music is of the finest.

Mdlle. Pinna Minotti took the title role, and again charmed all by her really beautiful singing. The famous "Knowest thou the Land?" (one of the most beautiful in the entire range of opera) earned for her unstinted applause, and in her later numbers she was also heard to great advantage.

As Filina, Mdlle. Enna Surinachi also gave an outstanding performance. To her falls the lot of singing the Polish air, an exceptionally difficult and showy coloratura soprano air, and she richly deserved the ovation which greeted the rendition.

All the other principals were excellent, and the performance was one of the best yet given. Two performances were given at the Star Theatre yesterday, at both of which large audiences were delighted by the operatic presentation.

CORRESPONDENCE.

The Kowloon Hospital.

(To the Editor, "Hongkong Telegraph.")

Sir, I should like to add my protest to the many published in the press on the question of stalling a British Government institution with foreign assistants of a particular religious faith. That is really what the appointment of sisters of the Maryknoll Mission to the future Kowloon hospital amounts to.

Quite apart from the religious aspect of the question there arises the point of why it should be necessary for the Government to appoint sisters of a foreign religious body in preference to British sisters who have become fully qualified to attend to the sick—sisters whose qualifications have been obtained in British institutions—famous—throughout the world.

Can it be that the Government begrudge the present small salary British sisters receive? That would appear to be the only excuse, it being generally understood that the Maryknoll Mission provide nursing sisters at merely nominal remuneration by virtue of funds subscribed by the public of the Roman Catholic faith.

That the work of the mission is to be admired, none will deny, but surely it is not to the credit of any Government to take advantage of religious funds for staffing of its hospitals.

Religious mission work holds a field of its own, and it is certainly not part of any religion to compete in either professional or commercial vocations. And it is emphatically to be deplored that any Government should support such competition when there is an abundance of assistance to be obtained through legitimate sources.

I believe that our present nursing staff is quite inadequate to deal with the large number of cases in our hospitals, but that is not on account of any difficulty in appointing additional British nurses. At the present time, there is a large number of trained nurses in England awaiting appointments abroad, and it is nothing short of scandalous that after years of training they should have to stand aside in favour of members of a Religious body prepared to give practically free service.

In conclusion, Sir, I would earnestly express the hope that His Excellency the Governor will forsake the policy of economy in deference to the wishes of Britishers in Hongkong, who rightly expect to see a British hospital staffed by British nurses.

Enclosing my card,
Yours, etc.
ASTONISHED.

LETTER FROM "LITTLE" HSU.

COMPLAINS OF BEING MISQUOTED.

We have received a letter from General Hsu Shou-tong, written in Chinese, in which he states that he has recently been misquoted by various Hongkong newspapers. He denies making such remarks as that Wu Pei-fu is mean and of inconstant mind or that Tuan Chi-jui cannot succeed unless united to Wu.

Gen. Hsu declares that he was to have travelled to Europe, but the change of events in the North has delayed his journey. In the course of conversations with friends who have visited him in Hongkong, he has expressed opinions on events in China which have been wrongly reported, he says.

Gen. Hsu gives what he terms a true report of his views on Chinese politics, but we regret that we have not the space for inclusion of this expression of opinion. He states that his intention is still to travel round the world, as soon as his present engagements are completed, and

WAGES CLAIM.

WICKERSHAM CASE RECALLED.

The Wickersham Case was recalled at the Supreme Court this morning when, before the Chief Justice sitting in Summary Jurisdiction, Helmut Rohn, of 1 Carnarvon Road, Kowloon, claimed $600 wages due from the American-Asiatic Commercial Company.

Mr. W. B. Hind appeared for the plaintiff and Mr. N. I. Brewer defended the action.

Mr. W. B. Hind said that plaintiff was engaged as from April as mercantile assistant at a salary of $200 per month. The company was registered under the Companies Ordinance. Plaintiff served the company until the beginning of July when he found the office closed. He was told that his services would be no longer required but no salary was paid him so that he was clearly entitled to wages for July, and he (Mr. Hind) would submit for June also. The claim was for wages for June and July and for a month's wages in lieu of notice.

Plaintiff went into the box and on being asked how and under what circumstances he left the employ of the company said that on July 3rd, he was told by Mr. Schoffer, the Treasurer and Secretary of the Company, that he could go. He was not told to go but merely that he could go. He asked for his salary and Mr. Schoffer said he could have it when Mr. Wickersham came back. The other servants of the company were paid their wages for June on July 2nd.

Mr. Brown: When did your father leave for Bangkok?—The Tuesday after Easter.

Was he in the employ of the company before you?—Yes; he was asked to act as General Manager in the middle of March.

Was he still General Manager when he left for Bangkok?—So far as I know, Yes.

Did you do any work for the firm before April?—Yes.

And is it a fact that you got no salary until after your father had gone to Bangkok?—Yes, but I got a certain commission.

What was your position in the firm?—They said I was General Manager of the Hongkong branch.

Whom do you mean by "they"?—My father told me in the presence of Schoffer and Wickersham.

Your father appointed you?—He told me.

From whom did you take your orders?—From my father as General Manager. In his absence I also took them from the Board of Directors.

While at the office were you in correspondence with your father privately?—Yes.

After he came back were you still to be manager?—Yes.

Were there to be two managers?—Yes, General Manager and manager.

I put it to you that your only position was that of representing your father at the office during his absence.—That is not so.

Your father arranged for certain monies to be advanced to your mother. I put it to you that he arranged for further advances to be made to you?—In his absence we were two different persons altogether. My account was nothing to do with his.

I put it to you that the money given to you was advanced from his share of the profits?—Was I, then, to work for nothing?

No; you were there to work for your father in his absence.

Witness—I cannot do the general manager's work.

Mr. Brewer: Have you been to the office since?—I have tried but could not get in.

You have never been in from that day?—No.

I put it to you that you were there in the company of the police?—The Lordship, I think, is referring to the case of Mr. Brown and Mr. Schoffer.

LADY ROBBED.

YET ANOTHER VICTIM.

Whilst walking along Hospital Road, near Dr. McKenny's residence at the Government Civil Hospital yesterday, Miss Cotton, living at No. 4 The Albany, had her handbag snatched from her by a Chinese, who had come up from behind.

The thief escaped. In a report to the Police, Miss Cotton states that there were money and valuables in the bag, amounting to $50.

case heard recently in the local courts, and known as the Wickersham Case. There were only three people in the American-Asiatic Commercial Company, Mr. and Mrs. Schoffer and Mr. Wickersham. They became acquainted with Rohn senior who represented to them that he had a great deal of knowledge of import and export work and persuaded them to allow him to join the firm. An agreement was made by which the old company was to be sold to a larger company for which Mr. Rohn was to draw up the prospectus. Wickersham and Rohn went to Bangkok with the idea of selling shares.

His Lordship: Was the company registered?

Mr. Brewer: The old company was, but not the new.

His Lordship: Did three people hold the whole of the shares in the old company?

Mr. Brewer: Yes with the exception of a few held by employees.

Continuing, Mr. Brewer said that Bangkok was to be the main scene of operation. While Mr. Rohn away, Rohn junior was placed in to look after his interests. Mr. Schoffer and Mr. Wickersham thought a great deal of Rohn senior's skill and business acumen and placed a great deal of faith in his knowledge. They thought his son could safely take his father's place during his absence in Bangkok. The many advances to Rohn junior were on account of the share of Rohn senior in the business.

While Wickersham and Rohn were away, Mr. Brewer explained, questions began to be raised about the validity of the prospectus that Rohn had drawn out and ultimately a telegram was sent by Schoffer in the following terms:

"Rohn's business shady, return."

Both returned, Rohn arriving two or three days ahead of Wickersham. Rohn fell out with Schoffer, and subsequently proceedings were taken by an employee who happened to be a shareholder on account of certain declared false statements. The office was closed down and Wickersham as president of the company was sentenced to a term of imprisonment. Every thing had then become a mess.

THE RACES.

SOME BIG DIVIDENDS.

Although the favourites got placed in most of the races on Saturday, there were some surprises, and these brought lucky backers dividends well above the ordinary. Langkat's victory in the Shek-O Handicap returned nearly $200, and Much in the Shatin Handicap brought place backers just over $100.

The Aggregate Cup went to Spotted Sand, with 9 points.
Prince Regent securing 8. Mr.
Harriman was the most successful jockey, with three wins out of four mounts.

The weather was ideal, and the band of the 1st Bn. East Surrey Regiment played several enjoyable selections during the afternoon. Among these present were H.E. the Governor, Sir H. E.
Stubbs, K.C.M.G., Sir Claud

Amateur International.
At Belfast, the Association Amateur International resulted in England defeating Ireland by 3 goals to 2.

All Blacks Tour.
The All Blacks defeated Northumberland by 27 points to 4 at Newcastle.—Reuter.

M.C.C. v. SOUTH AUSTRALIA.

Nov. 8.
The wicket was soft and sticky to-day. There were 16,000 spectators present. South Australia declared their innings closed with the score at 316 for four wickets, Richardson scoring 200 not out. The M.C.C. had scored 230 for two at the end of the day's play, Hobbs making 50, Sutcliffe 75 and Hounsome 58 not out.—Reuter.

NAVAL DANCE.

H.M.S. DIOMEDE'S CARNIVAL.

A very successful carnival dance was held at the Naval Canton Theatre on Saturday evening with 200 dancers in attendance.

Music was provided by the Diomedes Jazz Band and a excellently arranged programme was carried through, interspersed with vocal items rendered by that ship's concert party.

The hall was tastefully decorated with bunting and streamers and the carnival spirit was engendered by coloured lights and the introduction of many novel effects.

The Committee wish to express their thanks to the many patrons of the dance, the proceeds of which are to be devoted in their entirety to the widow of the late Stoker Petty Officer M. J. Clarke who lost his life by drowning in the Yangtze during the recent disturbances in the North.

EMIGRANTS.

AN UNLICENSED BOARDING HOUSE.

That the district was not easy to supervise by the Secretary of Chinese Affairs and that the boarding house was sending coolies abroad without first being examined by the S.C.A., were the grounds on which, said Mr. R. A. G. North at the Kowloon Magistrate's Court on Saturday, the Secretary of Chinese Affairs refused to grant a licence to Leung Lee, who was charged with keeping a boarding house at 37, Wai Ching Street, Yaumati.

Defendant pleaded that after his application for a licence had been refused, he sent all his emigrants to the Hung Fat Chan Boarding House in Hongkong.

Mr. North told the Court that on the 6th a man called Ng Tung made a complaint to the S.C.A. and Sergeant Bright was sent to inspect a certain house, where he found a number of people and the defendant. Three of the men had been examined by the S.C.A. They were taken there by the Hung Fat Chan Boarding House. Houses in this neighbourhood had been used to accommodate coolies and had sent them abroad without examination.

In answer to his Worship, Mr. North said that to some extent the case was serious. He did not know what the actual complaint about the house was. This man had been kept there with others, three of whom had been examined.

His Worship imposed a fine of $200 or two months' hard labour. A charge of aiding and abetting the other man was preferred against Lai Tung, of the Hung Fat Chan Boarding House.

Serjt. Bright, in evidence, said that he visited No. 37, Wai Ching Street on the 6th inst. where he discovered the emigrants.

Two of the emigrants who were taken to the S.C.A. by the Hung Fat Chan said that after passing their examination they went to No. 37, Wai Ching Street to visit a friend.

Defendant said that his boarders were at liberty to go wherever they Behold the bottle that holds Old Whisky!

WHEN a bottle contains whisky as old as Peter Dawson the sooner it gets itself known unmistakably the better for the blender and the better for you.
For this reason "brambles" and "dimples" have dawned upon the face of the "P.D." bottles, which you may now notice "brambling with pride" and "dimpling with pleasure." Such expressions being natural to a bottle containing something that few have got but which all want.
If you've a taste for genuinely old, wood-matured whisky, see that you get the bottle that's "brambled and dimpled."

TROTSKY'S OUTBURST.

Although so fantastically ridiculous as not to merit more than a passing smile, Trotsky's allusion to the aggressive interference of American militarism and capital with the affairs of Europe throws much light on the Bolshevik type of mind. To accuse the United States as Trotsky has done of a sinister design to destroy first one and then another European and Asiatic power until it is the great master State of the world, is to reveal himself a mad-brained fanatic and the dreamer of hideous nightmares. With Trotsky we do not need to worry ourselves very much were it not for the fact that he is at the head of the Russian Soviet Government and that he was arguing at a conference of military men against retrenchment in the army and navy. That is the serious part of it—the fact that such men as he are in the possession of executive power in Europe's biggest country, and that by their actions and speeches they are for ever widening the gulf which separates Russia, politically, from her neighbour countries.

Everything which, to moderate and sensible men and women, spells security and stability, spells retrogression to the Bolshevik. The Conservative victory in England—a victory which presages an era of undisturbed political conditions—must have come as a hard blow to the half-baked politicians in Moscow. The sweeping result of the American presidential election must have been another blow, and the organisation in France of a strong Republican National party will be greeted in Bolshevik Russia with something like dismay. And Trotsky and his following can see that the level-headedness of the educated proletarians of other countries is going to be the great obstacle in their road. In spite of all their propaganda they have just witnessed a demonstration of their failure. The Anglo-Russian Treaty will surely be scrapped, especially in view of the sensational disclosures recently made in connection with the alleged Zinovieff letter. Red Russia is failing to win either sympathy or support, and Bolshevism will gradually be driven back on itself until its exponents become either converted to saner thoughts, or driven, to desperation. Trotsky's outburst would seem to indicate that it is towards desperation that those men are drifting, and in order to justify the creation of a powerful Red force they are conjuring up lurid pictures of the terribly wicked capitalistic countries.

Most of us are prone to regard Bolshevism as being something tucked away in Russia and not to be bothered about. True, it is out of harm's way for the immediate present, but let there be no mistake about it, there will come the time when the doctrine of Karl Marx and the doctrine of capitalism and private ownership will meet in an open clash. Bolshevism is a creed which can never placidly accept the existence of capitalistic states for all time. There will be propaganda, and following propaganda there will be subsidised revolutions. We have got to look upon Bolshevism as a very real evil and prepare to meet its worst endeavours. When it argues for large armies on the plea of combating America's intention of "bringing disaster to mankind" we can surely sit up and take more than ordinary notice.

Labour in Australia.

If an example of what labour tyranny can be is required, one has only to turn to some of the incidents which occur in Australia from time to time. There, the control of industry, and even politics, has passed largely into the hands of the labour unions, more so in some States than others, and there can be no question that the natural development of the country is somewhat hampered by the power which this section of the community is able to wield. The present waterfront trouble, where a whole shipping line—and a State one at that—is able to be held up by disgruntled workers, is nothing new. The tyranny exercised by dockers and others "down under" has often proved an embarrassment to voyagers, and an amusing case one hears quoted concerned a farewell which was spoiled through a last-minute strike, which left passengers on board and friends on the wharf holding opposite ends of paper streamers until they tired of the pastime—for the ship did not budge until two hours after scheduled time, the men having then got their way. Of much significance is the report that the Commonwealth Line is being registered in England so as to enable it to employ any labour at all, instead of according to Australian labour union directions. But if this be true, we can imagine the opposition which the line will have to face from the interests concerned. It might be better in the end to make concessions for the sake of peace.

"Poppy Day."

The celebration of Armistice Day to-morrow will doubtless have varying significance for us all. To some it will be but the anniversary of the day on which the Great War ended to others it will, by reason of personal loss, recall past days of anxiety and bereavement. But to one and all of us, no matter what we did or did not do during the war and no matter whether we mourn the loss of loved ones, there will be given an opportunity of displaying our sympathy with all those ex-servicemen or their dependants to whom the Fund organised by Earl Haig administrators. No arguments are needed to commend the fund to the hearty support of all, and no eloquence should be necessary to stir up our sense of appreciation and gratitude to the men who are now rendered in need of help by their ready rendition of help to us in the days when a mad military machine threatened the destruction of much that we hold dear in civilisation. The universality of the appeal is at once felt, and the widespread and whole-hearted support of the community is invoked. This note is intended only as a reminder to all who may read that to-morrow is a day on which they can express in tangible form their sense of ob-

DAY BY DAY.

LIFE HAS TOO MANY CLAIMS AND PRIVILEGES AND RESOURCES TO WASTE IT IN LAMENTATIONS. LET ONE LOOK FORWARD, NOT BACKWARD.—Lilian Whiting.

Miss Bessie Lester who charmed a large audience at both shows at the Queen's Theatre yesterday by her songs and character impressions, is appearing for the last time to-day.

It has been reported to the police that a highway robbery took place at Tsun Wan, new Territory, at 5 p.m. yesterday, a Chinese being held up by three robbers and dispossessed of 23 rolls of cloth.

A stock of miniature decorations and war medals has been received by Messrs. Lane, Crawford, Ltd. These may be seen at the Jewellery Department in the Hongkong Hotel Buildings. It should be noted that this department remains open until 6 p.m. daily.

A sampan man was fatally injured about the shoulders when his craft, in attempting to cut across the bows of a Police launch, was caught between it and another launch on Saturday afternoon, near the S.S. Tangistan. The man died in Hospital where he was taken after the accident.

Nine junk masters appeared before the Marine Magistrate this morning charged with mooring their junks so as to obstruct the Government wharves and slipways in Victoria Harbour, on November 8th. The entire nine pleaded guilty and were fined $5, with an alternative of 5 days hard labour.

CANTON AND RUSSIA.

FRIDAY'S CELEBRATIONS.

The Canton Gazette in describing Friday's celebrations of the 7th anniversary of the Russian revolution, says:—
"Down With Imperialism!"
"Down With Militarism!"
"Long Live Soviet Russia!"

With joyous shouts and carrying banners bearing these slogans, soldiers, labourers, and members of the various industrial guilds in the city paraded yesterday through the maloes amidst the cheering of the people, in celebration of the seventh anniversary of the Russian Revolution. The maloes were lined with soldiers at intervals and the groups of processionists proceeded to the First Public Park and assembled there to listen to addresses by President Sun, Governor Hu Han-min, Gen. To-chen Wu, Ching-wei and officials of the Russian Consulate.

The Park was decorated with flags of China and Soviet Russia, and banners with appropriate inscriptions. After the ceremony at the Park, all joined in the parade and marched through the city.

Handbills were distributed informing the public of the significance of the success of the Russian Revolution and its important task of saving the oppressed nations from the encroachment of Imperialistic Powers.

The celebration of yesterday was unprecedented. Never before in the history of China did the people show so great enthusiasm in the celebration of a foreign National Day.

That the friendship between China and Russia is strong and sincere was shown by yesterday's celebration.

We are sure that the expression will be generous and that "Poppy Day" will, by its result, not only justify the optimism of its organisers but be a worthy reflex of Hongkong's gratitude.

SOUTH CHINA'S CLEAN SHEET.

BY "WANDERER".
Those who visualised the Club as the first side to penetrate the South China "A" defence were sadly disappointed for they rarely looked like scoring and in fact finished up losers by the only goal of the match.

The Chinese took longer than usual to settle down, but, once having taken the initiative, they were constantly threatening Rodgers' charge, and but for the sterling back-to-the wall game of Gerrard and Bishop, would no doubt have held a winning lead at the interval. As it was, ten minutes of the second half had elapsed before Li Wang-tong, receiving from Ip Kow, netted with a hard drive.

It was pleasing to see a little better understanding amongst the members of the Club defence, though there is still a tendency to give the ball a hefty kick without paying any attention to direction. Gerrard was a model to the others and it is not going too far to say that he gave his best display of the season. Bishop supported his captain splendidly, and, when one remembers that he was opposed to what is probably the best left wing in the Colony—well, it speaks for itself. Howard fills the left half-back position better than either of his predecessors. As a line, the forwards were not too good. Jones and Evelyn made one or two individual bursts but the wingers were off form.

The Chinese middle line held the upper hand throughout, though Lam Yuk-ying spoilt an otherwise good display by repeated and unnecessary foul play. Chan Kwong-ui was given too much rope—surely the Club know him by now—and he took full advantage of this lack of attention. On the extreme right Pang Kam-wing could make little headway against Gerrard, and Shun Kam-shun suffered in consequence. Neither Lau Hing-cheung nor the backs were overworked.

KOWLOON V. POLICE.

[BY "QUIZ".]
The Police were unfortunate in losing Wynne early in this match and went down to Kowloon by three goals to one. The Police had quite their share of the game but, after Wynne left, their forward line became disjointed owing to one of them falling back to assist McWalter. After McWalter had tested Clarke from close range Cleme opened the score for the home team and shortly afterwards Johnson levelled up, beating Stewart at the second attempt. At the interval the score was one all.

Resuming, the Police got well off the mark but misunderstanding between the forwards negated a good movement. McWalter gave the home team the lead with a dropping shot that Clarke failed to clear. Before the close, Cleme broke through the defence and shot for goal and, McBride running up, just turned it from E. A. Clarke into the net. The Police tried hard to wipe off the arrears against them but the final whistle found them defeated by three goals to one.

McWalter was in fine form at back while Forbes was the pick of the middle line. McWalter got the front line working and his first appearance as leader of the attack was a signal success. Turner was good at centre half while Wheeler and Knight played a sound defensive game.

TAMAR V SOUTH CHINA "B."

The sailors had their easiest game of the season on Saturday, when they won easily by four clear goals. South China could only field nine men and early in the second half lost their goalkeeper who had to retire with damaged toes. From the kick off the sailors took charge of the game but the sound play of Ng Kam-chuen at back and the goal-keeping of Hiu Sing-ju kept them out until play had been in progress twenty minutes, when Roberts sent the ball into the net and opened the score. Just on the interval McBride scored, and the teams crossed over with the sailors leading by two goals to nil. Roberts got through early in the second half and scored the third goal. Hiu Sing-ju in stopping a shot from McBride at close range damaged his foot and had to retire. The new goalie was pulled up for handling through an oversight of the South China captain, and the sailors were awarded a penalty kick, but Woodland sent the ball over the bar. Before the final whistle McBride scored again for the sailors who won by four clear goals.

JUNIOR GAMES.

In the junior division the most noticeable result was the win of St. Joseph "A" over the South China "A" by three goals to one. The China "A" team were looked upon as the winners of the junior league but losing two games in succession have spoiled their chances. However, the season is young yet and as the juniors are playing return games this year they will have plenty of time to regain their position. Leonard, Ward and Maher scored for St. Josephs and Ip Kau for South China.

Another good win was that of the College "B" team over a strong Kowloon Reserve team by the odd goal in five. Barrios opened the score for St. Josephs. Brown levelled up. Kirby gave Kowloon the lead but Au made the score two all. In the second half it again became a struggle for the lead and Barrios managed to get through for St. Josephs, who won by three goals to two.

The University beat the Drums on the Club ground by the odd goal in three. At the interval the Students were leading by two goals to nil. Au and Sopher scored. After the change of ends the Drums tried hard to get on level terms, but, although Parker scored once, the University kept them out and won the match by two goals to one.

The Club Reserves, playing at Bor' unpo, went down heavily to the Surrey Reserves, the score reading five goals to nil. Norris and Ridger scored before the interval and after the change of ends. Ridger scored twice and MacGreavey once, the Surreys winning as above.

Club de Recoito "A" beat the Sacred Heart on the South China ground by five clear goals. The Recoito team scored once in the opening half through D. Xavier. Remedios put them further ahead in the opening minutes of the second half and then Rocha put on two goals. Before the final whistle sounded D. Xavier had scored again from a penalty.

A well contested game was seen at Kowloon between the "B" teams of the Club de Reco, and South China, the game ending in a goalless draw.

FOOTBALL-PORTUGUESE LEAGUE.

As predicted, a very good game was witnessed on Sunday between the Club de Recoito and the Kowloon Social in the above league, the result being a win for the Club by one goal to nil. Both teams showed good form, with Kowloon slightly superior, who had very hard luck in not finding the net.

"REVOLVER TERROR."

"It is a terrible thing, the way in which people walk about the streets of London with revolvers," said the Recorder, Sir Ernest Wild, K.C., at the Old Bailey. "I do not know whether it is an aftermath of the war," he added, "or a change in human nature, but many people nowadays resort to lethal weapons when they have a grievance." The Recorder, referring to a charge of vitriol throwing, said that it was the crime of the apaches of Paris, and was almost worse than murder. He added: "There is a lot of sickly sentimentality about the people who commit these offences, but the crime is one which cannot be tolerated in a law-abiding country."

UNIQUE AND WONDERFUL. SHANGHAI'S LATEST HOTEL.

Some Features of "The Majestic."

[SPECIAL TO THE "TELEGRAPH"]

A stately mansion, standing in grounds some ten acres in extent, the Majestic Hotel was opened to the public on November 1st, when over eight hundred Shanghai residents and visitors, including a goodly sprinkling up from Hongkong for the Races, attended a brilliant inaugural dinner dance given to mark the completion of a huge undertaking which has given to Shanghai the most magnificent establishment of its kind to be found anywhere in the East. Indeed, it is to be doubted whether there is throughout the length and breadth of the whole world another hotel which boasts the sumptuous and distinctive characteristics of this latest addition to the extensive properties owned in the Far East by the Hongkong and Shanghai Hotels, Ltd. The Majestic is more than a hotel—it reflects all the traditional features of a magnificent country estate; that is the effect which has been aimed at and which has been realised to the full. Set well back from the Bubbling Well Road, in the residential district of the Settlement and yet within easy reach of the busy city, the Hotel comprises the well-known McBain property, including the spacious ground and family mansion, to which have been added an additional wing in order to accommodate a ballroom of imposing brilliance and an enclosed winter garden which is rich in artistic effects and, at one and the same time, both luxurious and restful. The major portion of the grounds has been beautifully laid out with trees, shrubs and flowering plants in the manner of an old English garden, whilst opportunity has also been taken to add to the charm and attractiveness of the property by laying down a wonderful Italian garden the like of which is not to be seen anywhere in the East. The mansion itself has been transformed both externally and internally, yet in such a manner as to preserve its most characteristic features including its wonderful wealth of old paintings, priceless tapestries and imposing marble settings. Such alterations and renovations as have been carried out have but added to its air of luxury and quiet dignity. The whole place bears the stamp of taste and quality—in a word, the Majestic Hotel stands as a lasting and unique monument to the enterprise of the Company which owns it, and represents the best efforts of modern hotel management, made possible by beautifully artistic handiwork and architectural skill.

THE DINING ROOM.

The mansion itself, which is fronted by a broad terrace overlooking the magnificent lawns and gardens, was originally furnished as a series of suites of rooms, each suite self-contained for family purposes. When the McBain estate was realised, the palatial building was purchased by the Hongkong and Shanghai Hotels, Ltd., for the purpose of converting it into a high-class hotel, and by the magnificence of the appointments, furnishings and decorations of some of its principal rooms it lent itself admirably to such a purpose. In converting the mansion to its present use, extensive alterations and improvements have been effected. The entrance hall has been enlarged, and the central courtyard, which was formerly enclosed by rooms on three sides and at the back by servants' quarters, has been built over with a stained glass roof and formed into the main hotel dining room, a series of massive yellow marble pillars forming a colonnade round four sides of the room. This great dining room is done out in severe classical style, the decorative fibrous plaster work in relief rigidly adhering to this idea. At the end opposite the entrance there is a musicians' gallery, which is formed into an alcove by a stained glass shell. With its rich mulberry carpets and black background to the golden pillars, and the beautiful rose lampshades, a most enchanting effect is produced when the room is lit up at night. One other feature of the dining room which may be mentioned is a life-size group of three allegorical figures in pure white, situated over the entrance door opposite the musicians' gallery. The main entrance of the Hotel leads through the celebrated Italian marble vestibule into the hall of lounge, which is richly paneled in oak, out of which are

EARLIER TELEGRAMS.

THE SINGAPORE BASE.

Tokyo, Nov. 8. The announcement has been made that the British Cabinet has revived the question of the construction of the Singapore base, which nearly every paper regards as inevitable.

The Asahi, while expressing the opinion that the construction of the base may lose much of its former significance in view of the probability of a second disarmament conference, declares that if the base is constructed, it is bound to complicate the situation in the Far East, as Japan would be compelled to join in such a conference with reservation.

The Yomiuri, says the advent of the Conservatives to Power draws attention to Japan's defence problems in the Far East, while the Chuo, though admitting the fortification of Singapore does not concern other nations, thinks that such a plan would nullify the Washington convention and excite armament competition.

The Kokumin sees in Mr. Baldwin's bold selection of Cabinet members his desire to bring the Conservative policy from traditional reactionism into sympathy with the demands of the age and domestic needs of the country.—Reuter's Pacific Service.

SEVEN AEROPLANES DESTROYED.

Cheyenne, Wyoming, Nov. 8. The air mail service hangar and seven aeroplanes were destroyed by fire, following the ignition of a petrol soaked floor by short-circuit, caused by breakage of an electric lamp.—Reuter's American Service.

WEEK-END FIRES.

ALARM FROM KOWLOON CITY.

There were two outbreaks of fire on Saturday evening, one of them resulting in considerable damage to a house in Kowloon City. It was about 5.45 p.m. that the alarm in respect of this outbreak was received by the Kowloon Brigade, and the fact that the building was saved from total destruction, despite the lapse of time between the alarm and the arrival of the firemen on the scene, was eloquent proof of the efficient work of the Brigade. The house involved was 17 Main Street, a two-storied structure. The ground floor was occupied by a piece goods merchant, while the upper floor was used as an ordinary dwelling. The greater part of the damage was done on the ground floor, where the water used by the firemen wrought havoc with the goods.

The second fire occurred at about the same time as the first. The roof of 23 Graham Street was suddenly found ablaze, creating great excitement in the vicinity. On the roof was a stove used in a heating process for preserving meat, and it is believed that sparks from the stove ignited a quantity of firewood kept nearby. The fire was extinguished by the Fire Brigade, there being almost no structural damage but about thirty dollars worth of firewood and some dry meat were burned.

Of the very fine Boucher painted ceiling of flower-laden cupids sporting amongst rosy-tinted clouds. A brief description of a typical one of the thirty-two suites would no doubt prove interesting to our readers. The bedroom is spacious and beautifully furnished, with carpet, curtains, wall paper and coverings all tastefully blended, no two rooms being alike in colour scheme. At the same time, the furniture itself is standardised in design, excepting in the case of one or two special suites. The finish of the furniture varies in the different rooms, some being in mahogany, some in ivory and some French gray in colour. The twin beds are designed to match the furnishings, special attention being given to comfort as well as appearance in the appointments. All the customary bedroom appointments are well represented, as well as settees, easy chairs, writing desks and other conveniences not usually to be found in such rooms. In addition to the bedroom there is an enclosed verandah or sun porch, which is in reality a small sitting-room, as well as a spacious and well-appointed bathroom tiled in white, complete with all modern equipment.

Such, in brief, is a description of the main hotel building. Tomorrow we intend publishing a separate description of the magnificent ballroom, which is a truly wonderful structure and represents all that is best in artistic furnishing, decoration and lighting effects. The structural alterations to the hotel building were carried out under the direction of the architect, Mr. A. Lafuente, whilst the whole of the furnishings, decorations and sculptured groups are the product of the studio and workshops of the well-known firm of Arts and Crafts, Ltd., whose work in so many departments of art and handicraft it would be difficult to find excelled in any part of the world. The culmination of the whole scheme is a tribute to the vision and enterprise of the managing director of the Hotel Company, in whose brain this huge undertaking originated.

Along the whole front of the building is a wide enclosed verandah softly carpeted and beautifully adorned with enamelled furniture covered in cushions of strong emerald green.

THE SUITES.

All the features mentioned in the foregoing are on the ground floor, above which are three storeys each with its luxuriously furnished and paneled lounge and suites of bed and sitting rooms. The most notable feature of these three floors is the Embassy suite, comprising hall, boudoir, enclosed verandah, bedroom, with sitting room alcove, dressing room and bathroom. These rooms are the last word in magnificence, combined with refinement of taste, an adequate description of which would fill many columns. Special mention must, however, be made

The remarkable action picture shows the U.S. water polo team making its first score against the British team in the recent contests at Harrow-On-Hill. The Americans were victors.

Firemen are responsible for New York's imitation of the good old fashioned swimming hole. The "hole" is a wooden tank and the water is sprayed into it from a pipe above. On a warm day the youngsters crowd it to capacity, while hundreds wait for opportunity to stand under the spray or jump up and down in the water. It is always so crowded that none can swim.

Flags and bunting were strung along the streets of Evanston, Ill., in preparation for the formal notification ceremony of Charles Dawes, Republican vice presidential nominee. The picture shows Greenwood avenue, the street where Dawes lived.

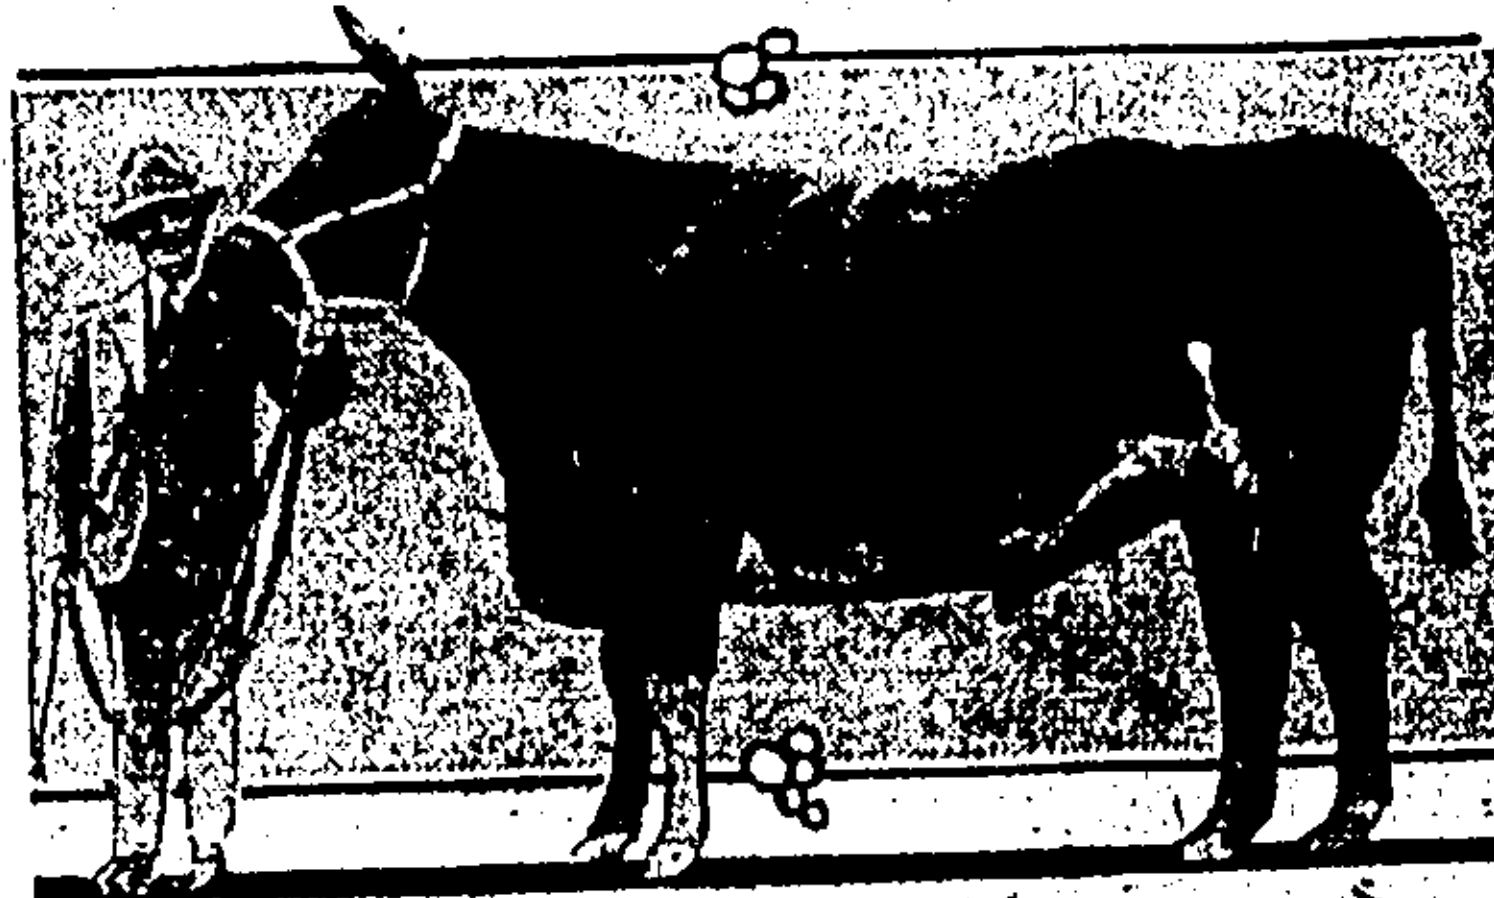

Explorers have penetrated the famous Carlsbad Cavern at Carlsbad, N.M., for more than eight miles, without finding an outlet. The cavern consists of a series of connecting chambers, with a dazzling display of natural formations.

Condemned to die because the herd had grown too large, 1000 buffaloes were stirred into a stampede so that moving picture men might catch them in action. The animals were later shot down by guards at Canadian Government Park, Wainwright, Alberta.

Just because this pure-bred Durham steer is considered the largest in the world, he got a free trip from Alberta, Canada, to the British Empire Exposition at Wembley, England. He stands 18 hands high, is 10 1/2 feet in girth and weighs 2834 pounds.

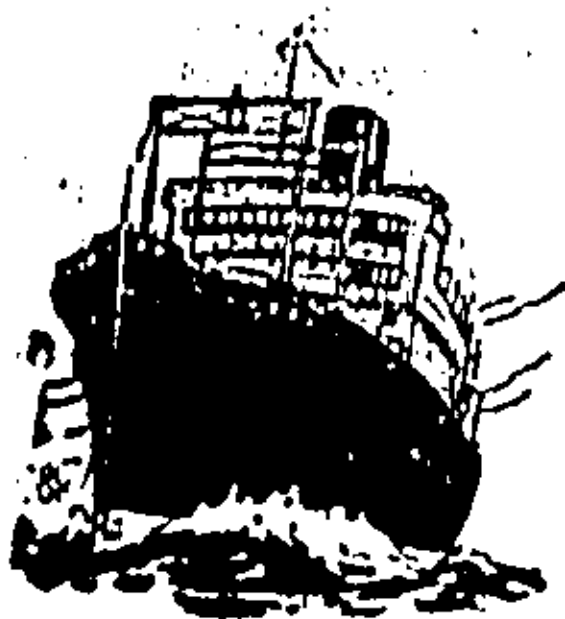

Miss Christine MacLean, of Pine Grove, Ontario, recently returned to the States from service with the Near East Relief in Greece, where she inaugurated methods to rid the territory of the malarial plague.

CONSIGNEES.

ADMIRAL ORIENTAL LINE

The Steamship,
"PRES. MADISON,"

having arrived from Seattle via ports on Oct. 31st, 1924 Consignees are hereby notified that their cargo is being landed at their risk into the hazardous and/or extra hazardous godowns of the Hongkong and Kowloon Wharf and Godown Co. at Kowloon, and stored at consignees' risk.

Consignees of Cargo must produce an Import Permit signed by Superintendent of Imports & Exports, Hongkong, before Bills of Lading will be countersigned.

All broken, chafed & damaged cargo is to be left in the godowns where it will be examined at 11 a.m. on Nov. 5th, 1924, by the Company's Surveyors, Messrs.
Anderson and Ashe.

All claims must be presented within thirty days of the steamer's arrival here, after which they cannot be recognised. No claims will be recognised after the goods have left the godowns, and cargo undelivered on and after 7th
Nov. 1924, will be subject to rent.
No Fire Insurance whatever will be effected.

Consignees are requested to send in their Bills of Lading for countersignature immediately.

A GOOD DOCTOR FOR INDIGESTION.

If you want quick and sure relief from the pains and distress of indigestion, dyspepsia, gastritis, food fermentation and weakening acidity, just take two or three little Bisurated Magnesia Tablets after eating or whenever pain is felt. Bisurated Magnesia Tablets act like magic, are absolutely harmless, and enable the worst dyspeptic to enjoy a good old-fashioned meal without fear of upset to follow. Bisurated Magnesia is an ideal "doctor" for stomach sufferers, always ready when needed, and gives instant relief at little cost! Get a package of Bisurated Magnesia Tablets from your chemist today, take them as directed, and you'll soon forget you ever had a stomach pain!

It is wise to see the oval
